

Dr. Sandhya Limaye

Social Work Opportunities and Challenges to Disability Research in India

Friday, December 7th

9-10:30am 206 Parker Hall (South Campus)

Dr. Sandhya Limaye- an Associate Professor in the Center for Disability Studies and Action and the School of Social Work at the Tata Institute of Social Sciences in Mumbai, India- is currently a Fulbright Research Fellow at the University at Buffalo's Center for Disability Studies. Dr. Limaye's fields of research include community education, rehabilitation, and social work practices involving people with disabilities, women with disabilities, and youth with parents with disabilities